My Lords, and Gentlemen,

ON a full Consideration of the present Situation of Affairs, and of the extraordinary Circumstances which have produced it, I am induced to put an End to this Session of Parliament: I feel it a Duty, which I owe to the Constitution and to the Country, in such a Situation, to recur as speedily as possible to the Sense of My People, by calling a New Parliament.

I trust that this Measure will tend to obviate the Mischiefs arising from the unhappy Divisions and Distractions which have lately subsisted; and that the various important Objects, which will require Consideration, may be afterwards proceeded upon with less Interruption, and with happier Effect.

I can have no other Object, but to preserve the true Principles of our free and happy Constitution, and to employ the Powers entrusted to Me by Law, for the only End for which they were given, the Good of My People.

Then the Earl Mansfield, Lord Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, Speaker of the House of Lords, by His Majesty's Command, said:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is His Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday, the Sixth Day of April next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday, the Sixth Day of April next.

A NEW Great Seal of Great Britain having been prepared by His Majeſty's Chief Engraver of Seals, in purſuance of a Warrant to him for that Purpoſe, under His Majeſty's Royal Signature; and the ſame having been this Day preſented to His Majeſty in Council, and approved; His Majeſty was thereupon graciouſly pleaſed to deliver the ſaid New Seal to the Right Honourable Edward Lord Thurlow, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and to direct that the ſame ſhall be made Uſe of for Sealing all Things whatſoever which paſs the Great Seal.

Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, March 24.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, has been preſented to the King by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland, Lord Lieutenant, Cuſtos Rotulorum, and Vice Admiral of the ſaid County: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, aſſembled at a General County Meeting, purſuant to Notice advertiſed by the Sheriff, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Aſſurances of our moſt zealous and affectionate Attachment te your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and to expreſs our Gratitude for your Majeſty's Wiſdom and paternal Regard for the Welfare of your People, in diſmiſſing from your Councils the late Miniſtry.

With the utmoſt Concern we beheld Men, under the Maſk of Public Good, invading the Chartered Rights of the Subject, and attempting to eſtabliſh a Power equally hoſtile to the Conſtitutional Prerogatives of the Crown, as to the Liberties of the Subject; and have ſeen with deep Concern a Majority of that Branch of the Legiſlature, whoſe Duty it is to ſpeak the Senſe as well as guard the Privileges of the Subject, ſtruggling to compel your Majeſty to take again into your Service thoſe who had forfeited your Royal Confidence, and the Approbation of your People.

We entertain an high Senſe of the Integrity and Abilities of the Miniſters, whom your Majeſty has thought fit to place and continue in the Firſt Departments of the State: and have a firm Reliance on the Sincerity of their Intentions to promote the Public Welfare, which will be beſt ſecured by obtaining for your loyal Subjects a Repreſentation in Parliament conſonant to the true Principles of our Government.

That the Almighty may preſerve your Sacred Perſon, and proſper your Councils for the Public Good, is our fervent Prayer.

[Signed by 59 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Leiceſter, has been preſented to the King by Charles Grave Hudſon, Eſq; High Sheriff, and John Peach Aungerford and William Pochin, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Leiceſter.

SIRE!

YOUR Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Leiceſter, in the preſent critical State of Publick Affairs, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Aſſurances of our hearty Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

Ever Enemies to Faction and Violence, however ſpecioufly concealed, we cannot withold our Diſapprobation of the Attempts which have been lately made, (by attacking your Majeſty's undoubted Prerogative,) to ſubvert the juſt Balance of our happy Conſtitution; a Conſtitution which founded in Wiſdom, and matured by Experience, it is no leſs our Duty than our Inclination to preſerve inviolate.

Aware of the enormous Debt under which we labour, and of the painful Neceſſity your Majeſty feels of calling on your People for freſh Supplies, we are happy to be able to declare the Heart-felt Satisfaction we have in ſeeing ſpeculative Œconomy reduced to Practice by the Miniſter who is intruſted with the firſt Office of the State. We rely on him for the ſtricteſt Regard to the Expenditure of the Public Money; and, from his diſintereſted Conduct and ſuperior Talents, are prepared to expect thoſe Bleſſings which, we are convinced, it is your Royal Wiſh to ſee enjoyed by a free, a proſperous, an united People.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick, has been preſented to the King by Sir Robert Lawley, Bart. and Sir George Shuckburgh, Bart. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Aſſurances of our moſt ſincere Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government. We humbly preſume to tender our grateful Acknowledgments for the recent Endeavours which your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to intimate, have been employed on your Part to form a firm, efficient, united, and extended Adminiſtration, entitled to the Confidence of your People, and ſuch as might have a Tendency to put an End to the unhappy Diviſions and Diſtractions of this Country. We wiſh to expreſs our Concern that ſuch truly parental Endeavours have not had the deſired Succeſs, by uniting in the Publick Service, on a fair and equal Footing, thoſe whoſe joint Efforts appear to your Majeſty moſt capable of producing that happy Effect. We lament the Spirit which obſtructs ſo deſirable an Object, which we cannot ſee would in any Degree be advanced by the Diſmiſſion of the Miniſters at preſent in your Majeſty's Service, obſerving, as we do, that there is no Charge or Complaint againſt them, nor is any one or more of them ſpecifically objected to.

Being firmly perſuaded that the Laws of theſe Kingdoms have wiſely entruſted to your Majeſty the undoubted Right of appointing your Miniſters, and entirely confiding in your Majeſty's Love and Veneration for the Conſtitution, we beg Leave to join our Voice to that of Numbers of your Majeſty's Subjects, and to expreſs our earneſt Hope that your Commons, relying on your Majeſty's paternal Care and Wiſdom, will vigorouſly unite in forwarding the Publick Buſineſs, which has been hitherto too long retarded.

Signed at the unanimous Requeſt of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Warwick, at a Meeting held this 19th Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four, at the County Hall, purſuant to an Advertiſement for that Purpoſe, by Francis Burdett, Sheriff.

The following Addreſs of the Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Principal Inhabitants of the Franchiſe of Wenlock, has been preſented to the King by Sir Richard Hill, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Salop, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Principal Inhabitants of the Franchiſe of Wenlock, in the County of Salop.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the populous and commercial Franchiſe of Wenlock, in the County of Salop, have obſerved, with due Indignation, thoſe Attempts that have been lately made by daring and ambitious Men, to violate both our private and our publick Rights, to uſurp Powers incompatible with the Liberty which we held ſo dear, and to abridge thoſe Prerogatives of the Crown which are ſo eſſential to the Exiſtence of that excellent Conſtitution, which we will, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, defend.

We therefore preſume to approach your Majeſty with the juſt Tribute of our Thanks for that paternal Care of your People, diſplayed in your defeating thoſe Attempts, and in diſmiſſing from your Councils thoſe Men, who, with impious Hands, were endeavouring to undermine that noble Fabric of Government, raiſed by the Toils, and cemented by the Blood of our Anceſtors, the Pride of Britons, and the Envy of ſurrounding Nations.

Your Majeſty's Royal Virtues fill us with Confidence that you will firmly perſevere in reſiſting thoſe Efforts uſed to ſubvert the Freedom of your People, which cannot fail of inſpiring them with the moſt ardent Affection for your Perſon and Government, and of enſuring their Support.

[Signed by 292 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Blandford Forum, has been preſented to the King by the Honourable George Pitt, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Dorſet, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants in General, of the Town of Blandford Forum, in the County of Dorſet, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Blandford Forum, humbly beg Leave to lay before your Majeſty our ſincere Expreſſions of Gratitude for the Diſmiſſion of the late Adminiſtration, deeming it our indiſpenſible Duty to your Majeſty in the preſent Situation of Affairs, thus publickly to teſtify our entire Approbation of that Event.

Your Majeſty's Steadineſs to ſupport the Rights of your People, and to preſerve the juſt Prerogative of your Crown, impreſſes us with the higheſt Degree of Gratitude.

Though

Though we ſincerely join with the Reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects in lamenting the unhappy Diviſions which obſtruct and retard the Publick buſineſs; we have the ſtrongeſt Hope that the Integrity of your Majeſty's preſent Miniſters, and the Support of your People, will tend effectually to preſerve your Majeſty's Prerogatives, and maintain the Conſtitution, as eſtabliſhed at the glorious Revolution.

Attached to no Party, but animated by theſe Conſiderations, we reſt in Confidence of your Majeſty's Wiſdom, in rejecting Men of ſuch diſcordant Principles as formed your late Miniſtry, and employing ſuch only who can juſtly claim the Confidence of your Majeſty, and the Support of your People.

We ſincerely pray that your Majeſty's reign may be long and proſperous, over a free and happy People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council, of the City of Aberdeen.

Moſt Gracious Sovertign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council, of the City of Aberdeen, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne at this critical and alarming Period, and to avow our grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Protection of the juſt Rights and Privileges of your People, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Perſon and Government.

Deeply impreſſed with a juſt Senſe of your Majeſty's mild and Conſtitutional Adminiſtration, we lament the preſent Interruptions to National Buſineſs, unhappily occaſioned by the ambitious Views of turbulent and factious Men; but we hope and truſt that your Majeſty will continue to exerciſe your juſt Prerogative, in making Choice of wiſe and virtuous Miniſters, in whom your Majeſty, and your good and loyal Subjects, may place a proper and mutual Confidence.

That your Majeſty, unmoleſted by Licentiouſneſs and Faction, may long reign over a free and happy People; and that all your Subjects may learn to imitate that Illuſtrious Example of publick and prviate Virtue, which your Majeſty ſets before them, is the earneſt Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Signed in their Name and Preſence, and by their Appointment, at Aberdeen, the 16th of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and Eighty four.

YOUR Majeſty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Juſtices of Peace, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Supply, of the County of Aberdeen, alarmed at the Evils which threaten our happy Conſtitution from that dangerous Spirit of Faction and reſtleſs Ambition, whoſe Progreſs we have beheld with Concern, cannot longer be ſilent. Connected with no Party or Faction in the State, we ſpeak the genuine Sentiments of our Minds, and conſcious of your Majeſty's unwearied Attention to the Welfare of your People, and to the Preſervation of the Sacred Rights of every Branch of the Conſtitution of theſe Kingdoms, we beg Leave to expreſs, before the Throne, our unfeigned Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, our inviolable Attachment to the Conſtitution of our Country, and our firm Reſolves to ſupport and defend your Majeſty's rightful Authority, which we conſider as inſeparably connected with it, at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes.

Signed in Preſence, and by Appointment of the Meeting,

Aberdeen, March 16, 1784. Wm. Forbes, Preſes.
